For the last forty or more years our country has taken an ever more pronounced departure from our founding values found in the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, the Bill of Rights and the Northwest Ordinance. The cause for this has been an ongoing and fundamental misunderstanding of who we are as a country. This condition was born of a diminishing importance of the study of American history and great traditions we have in ethics, honor, and truth. Inevitably damage has been done and that damage is increasing. This condition, based on ignorance, breeds further ignorance which in turn feeds on itself. In many circles this mindset actively and aggressively opposes our history and values. This presentation will help you recognize these dangers and provide a template for you to effectively address them. Courage and truthful information are required for success.

Biography of John Lewis: John Lewis is a retired business consultant living in New Orleans. John has 30 years of experience in working with small business owners to maximize profitability and ensure sustainability of the enterprise. He has a record of successful interventions all across the country from Los Angeles to New York City and more. John has worked with entities as small as a single unit to over seven hundred at a time. Many have won national awards for excellence, and none of these winners were in such a position before John arrived. He is active at church and is a patriotic Vietnam veteran. He lives in New Orleans with his wife Elise.
