"Will Current Oil/Gas Prices Hold?"
"Gas Supplies and Demand"

Chairman's Column

Most of you know that there will not be an API Joint Luncheon Meeting in New Orleans this year for the November lunch. Instead, we will have a normal lunch meeting at Andrea's. Our speaker will be Eric Smith, Associate Director of Tulane University Energy Institute who will talk about the current prices as well as gas supply and demand. We will again have one free drink ticket before lunch. Remember our meeting begins at 11:30am. If you do not take the poll below Carol will call you to get your response.
